HOW SCRANTONIANS OBSERVED THE DAY

No Great Shakes, but the City Did Very Well.

MANY AVENUES FOR PLEASURE

Caledonian Games, Base Ball, Lake Ariel Excursion and Other Means of Pastime—Thousands Left the City and Thousands Celebrated at Home—Very Little Disorder—Intense Heat.

The third edition of the Fourth of July, 1897, was variously observed in this city yesterday. As a legal holiday it was one of the tamerest ever known. The celebration on the two previous days, Saturday and Sunday, played hob with the small and big boy's stock of fire works, and consequently there was no great noise. This fact also explains the very quiet day with the fire department.

Chief Hickey had made thorough preparation for prompt and efficient service. In every house a special detail of firemen were located and the chief himself spent every moment of time at his headquarters in the Century house. There were fewer fires than in years, however.

About the city there were a few pedestrians and these few were either waiting for street cars or were moving toward some sheltering nook. At Nay Aug park the men who made the park possible were blessed by thousands of people. White, light gowns and straw hats were all over the park. There was no special attraction there, only the trees and breeze and benches, but these were appreciated. The same magnetism was responsible for hundreds of wagon loads of people who spent the day at Mountain Lake, the pretty little patch of earth and water in this back yard of the South Side.

At Laurel Hill park, beside the trees, so the Caledonian games. These afforded the principal entertainment in the city. The crowd was immense, numbering into several thousands.

AT LAKE ARIEL. At Lake Ariel a large crowd enjoyed the privileges of the pretty resort. Trains to the lake during all the day carried fresh loads of the seekers for a good time and a cool atmosphere. The crowd was orderly and companionable.

Base ball was also in evidence, very so. In the morning Athletic park contained about three thousand persons, including a very few from Wilkes-Barre. In the afternoon the game at Wilkes-Barre attracted over 600 Scrantonians. The Scranton delegation in size and enthusiasm was quite pretentious.

At Athletic park in the afternoon the Eureka and Lackawanna amateur ball clubs furnished some entertainment. A boxing bout was a prominent side feature.

During the day the crowd that the Traction company cared for numbered into the tens of thousands. The service was strikingly excellent, more so in fact than upon many previous holidays.

THE CROWDS COME HOME. Toward evening when the crowds filled the various avenues to the city and home, things began to brighten up. The sidewalks of Lackawanna avenue were massed with moving people. After dark came the fire works and though there was no special extravagance noted, the general display was as great as in the past years. The display on the hill, and on the West Side was brilliant and furnished an attractive picture for the other sections of the city.

With the return of the crowd also came more work for the police. Only four arrests had been made up to noon, but after that the station house began to fill. Chief Robling called into use every factor at his command in keeping order and succeeded. Few obnoxious celebrators escaped. Through-out the city many accidents happened but comparatively few were of a serious nature.

And the heat! In rounding up a tale of the day's doings the heat is the most bothersome and most annoying thing around. From 12 o'clock noon until 2.30 o'clock the thermometer at Phelps' drug store fanned itself at 84. When the sun went down so went the mercury until at 9 o'clock it took a rest at 84.

HOSPITAL FIRECRACKERS. Two Little Unfortunates Had One Big, Bully Time.

At the Lackawanna hospital yesterday Dr. J. L. Andrews, senior physician, and Dr. Frederick Gilbert, the latest acquisition to the staff, were kept busy dressing small wounds, the result of exploding powder.

In all, fourteen cases were treated at the hospital. Of these the greater number were small burns and no separate record was kept of them. One young man, a resident of Raymond at the hospital, was burned by an exploding cannon cracker. His name could not be learned.

In the afternoon the patients at the hospital who were able to be out doors shot off many packages of crackers on the lawn in front of the building. These crackers were the gift of charitable persons. An incident of this feeble celebration was noted by a Tribune reporter. Two little boys, one of whom was afflicted with deformed legs and when admitted to the hospital six months ago could only drag himself around on hands and knees, and another who is recovering from a serious illness, were out on the lawn shooting off crackers.

The sick boy moved about in a rolling chair, his hands moving the wheels. The other could barely walk and when the boy in the rolling chair lit his cracker he would wheel himself away, the other boy would roll his body on the ground.

A crowd of urchins from the alleys about the hospital had installed themselves on the walk outside, pressing their faces against the iron fence to watch the display of the two envied patients. These sturdy youngsters kept urging the sick boys to throw the crackers over the fence. The boy in the chair was twitted when his fire crackers failed to reach the mark, a distance of fifteen feet. "Wats de madder with ye, why don't you throw it over?" The boy in the chair answered: "I can't; used to could."

IF WE HAD BUT KNOWN. Beer War at Lake Ariel Makes Most Tempting Bargains.

The Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad company took between 1,400 and 1,500 people to Lake Ariel yesterday. There were no accidents of any kind and the heat of order prevailed. The excursionists were carried over in 63 cars. The day was replete with enjoyment.

SHORT SESSION OF COURT.

The Ever Glorious and the Heat Did Not Stop the Law. Argument court was in session for a short time yesterday morning. It being the regular motion day and a number of lawyers having signified their desire to be heard, the judges arranged for a brief sitting.

ONLY ONE ALARM.

Fire Department Had a Very Easy Time. Scare at the First Presbyterian Church.

The first alarm of the day and the only one up to 2 o'clock this morning was sent in from box 25, corner of John street and Ash street at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. The alarm was caused by a slight blaze in the house of a man named Stein in Peterburg.

FIRE ON A CHURCH ROOF.

A burning balloon at 10.30 o'clock last night fell upon the roof of the First Presbyterian church on Washington avenue.

Passers by sent in a still alarm to the Phoenix company. The blaze was extinguished in a brief time. The damage was trivial.

The Chemical had another still alarm at 11.05 p. m. Fireworks set fire to a cross beam under Tobaccoist Butterman's porch and the beam had to be chopped out.

ST. LUKE'S EXCURSION.

St. Luke's Sunday school will have its annual picnic at Lake Ariel on Thursday. It is especially desired that all that be made, as has been the case of late years, a parish outing; that a large number of members of the congregation will accompany the Sunday school. The train will leave the Erie and Wyoming railroad station at 8.30 a. m. Children's tickets, 40 cents; adults, 75 cents.

The experience of several recent excursion parties makes it wise to give notice to beware of professional pickpockets at the station. At the lake Mr. Neff will be prepared to supply ice cream and other refreshments. Music has been arranged for. Several members of the best orchestra in the city have been engaged for the day.

WHEELMAN'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Rubber Tires Saved Him from a Shock of Electricity. At 9 o'clock a Laurel Hill car slipped its fender at the corner of Adams and Lackawanna avenue and the traveler on the trolley caught the main wire at its junction with the span and tore down both. There were several narrow escapes.

A bicyclist, who was riding along with the car, was struck on the arm by the flying wire. With a yell he shot aboard, disengaging himself as he did so.

Electricians say that only the rubber tires of the wheel saved him from a perhaps fatal shock.

Traffic on the Laurel Hill line was delayed for twenty minutes or until the repair wagon arrived and mended the break.

BUCK WILL RECOVER.

Taken to the Lackawanna Hospital Yesterday. George Buck, the 12-year-old boy who was with John Busko when the latter was killed by a giant powder explosion at Winton Sunday evening, was taken to the Lackawanna hospital yesterday.

His injuries are about the body. Dr. Andrews is of the opinion that Buck will recover.

CALEDONIANS AT LAUREL HILL PARK

Scotch-Americans Celebrate in Their Own Good Way.

THOUSANDS VIEW THE GAMES

Park Was Packed with an Enthusiastic Crowd During the Day and Evening—Thrilling Exhibition by the De Comas and a Number of Spirited Athletic Events—Well-Known Scotch-Americans Conducted the Affair.

The Caledonian games at Laurel Hill park were the principal attraction in the city during the afternoon, and thousands of people enjoyed the sports and watched the marvelous exhibition given by the De Comas on the bicycle and trapeze fifty feet above the ground.

The woman rode an "ordinary" wheel along the wire which was stretched across from one tree to another at a point near the ladies' pavilion. Directly beneath the wheel was suspended a trapeze upon which the man performed, and to say that their work was thrilling is putting it mildly. They gave two performances, one immediately after the athletic contests in the afternoon and another in the evening at 9 o'clock.

It required fifty trolley cars on the Laurel Hill line to transport the thousands who saw the games. The cars ran on a one-minute schedule all afternoon and it was the exception, particularly from 1.30 to 2 o'clock, that a car contained less than 50 persons. The company gave an excellent service something that would have been impossible on any but a double-track line. It is estimated that nearly 10,000 persons were in the park during the day and evening.

THE SPORTS. The sports began shortly before noon and were continued until after six o'clock. The successful competitors in the twenty-seven different events were as follows:

Boys' race—W. C. Moffitt, first, suit of clothes; Thomas Gilmartin, second; Nat T. J. John, third, the hammer—George Rutledge, first, 97 ft. 7 in.; James Dick, second, 81 ft. 7 in.; Joseph O'Neill, third, 81 ft. 7 in.

STABBED IN THE HEAD.

Hungarians Discuss to the Limit the Meaning of the Fourth.

Two Hungarians got into a discussion over the meaning of the Fourth of July in Mahon's saloon, on Fourth street, last night, when George Drurylak drew his knife and slashed at Steve Rosnoe. The blade entered Rosnoe's head. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital.

Drurylak was arrested by Patrolman Sioat, Detective Dyer and Specials Dubbig and Ferrell. He was found in hiding in the cellar of his house, on First street, and was locked in the police station. He will be sent to the county jail today to await the result of Rosnoe's injuries.

At the hospital Dr. Andrews found that Rosnoe is not seriously hurt. A large scalp wound on the left side of the head is the only injury. The skull is not affected.

Both Rosnoe and Drurylak are married men. Drurylak last night disclaimed any part in the affray. He was drunk.

HIS LITTLE GIRL WITH HIM.

An Inebriate Found in a Shameful Condition Yesterday. The names of prisoners was a thing unthought of at the police station, last night. One man was found at 7.40 o'clock laying on the Providence road in a beastly state of intoxication.

Most of his clothing had been taken off. With him was a little 5-year-old girl, presumably his daughter. The two were brought to the station house in the patrol wagon and were placed in separate cells.

FALLEN'S CELEBRATION.

Shotgun Went Off and His Leg Was Damaged. M. J. Fallon with his family went to Mountain Lake yesterday to spend the great day. He took along his shotgun and in handling it the weapon fell to the ground. The trigger was cocked and the charge entered the fleshy part of Fallon's left leg.

He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital, where the wound was dressed. Fallon lives at 638 Orchard street.

CHEMICALS ENTERTAIN.

The chemicals had a very respectable Fourth of July celebration of their own. The members "chipped in" and secured a large lot of fireworks which were set off in front of the house "twelve trees" last evening. Several hundred people enjoyed the display.

WAS TAMING A CANNON.

At Midnight Willie Clarke Lost Two of His Fingers.

Willie Clarke, aged 18, was tamping a cannon at 12 o'clock last night. The charge suddenly went off and a half hour later a carriage took the boy to the Lackawanna hospital. Two fingers on the left hand were so badly damaged by the spike with which the boy was tamping the cannon that amputation was necessary.

Big Crowd at Farview. Fifteen hundred people went to Farview yesterday. No accident marred the pleasure of the cutting and the cool breezes of the altitudinous resort was veritable rescue from the heat of the city.
